

Letter from the Director

Thirteen years ago, I stepped into Immokalee Pregnancy Center for my very first day as a bilingual client advocate. I was excited, nervous and all the emotions you could imagine. I knew that God had led me to the center with a purpose and wow! What a beautiful adventure these years have been. Every day, my love and passion for what we get to do continues to grow for this mission.

If we were to sit down together for a cup of coffee (or in my case, a sweet tea) I could share endless stories of all the lives that have been loved on, empowered and seen. Every client that walks through our doors reminds me of the Samaritan women at the well, Nathaniel under the fig tree, Hagar in the desert and David hidden away. Each client - though they might feel scared or hopeless perhaps in that moment, are all seen and loved by our Creator

Every one of them is Marvelously Made and Wrapped in His Majesty. Our hope is to continue not only providing life-affirming services such as our pregnancy tests, ultrasounds and parenting classes, but also to continue extending An Anchor of Hope. As we continue forward and look toward all that God will continue to do at IPC, let's continue to Love Them Both together.

Each day that we are open, we have the honor of blessing each family that comes through our doors. It is not a task that one person can do, or even one church can do; but it is through the combined support of each staff member and partner throughout our community that we can bless and encourage these families. For your support we say Thank you!

I'm thrilled to announce that for the first time Immokalee Pregnancy Center will be hosting an Open House, so that all our ministry partners can come and see firsthand what your support has helped us accomplish. Our team is excited to see you and to give you a tour of the center. There is more information about the Open House inside this newsletter. So, grab a cup of coffee, tea or a nice cold Coca-Cola and let's catch up, sweet friend. We have a lot of catching up to do!

Together in His Service,

Stefy
Executive Director

JUDI THERIAULT, SUPPORTER & VOLUNTEER

It's been a decade since I started helping at Immokalee Pregnancy Center. After hearing about the needs at IPC, I knew it was something I wanted to be a part of in any way I could help.

I was only 17 years old when I found out I was pregnant. My boyfriend and I were both seniors in High School and when we heard the news, we were afraid but had the advantage of living in loving homes and we were both working after school. I am ever grateful how God allowed it all to work out for our good and His glory. We married two weeks after our high school graduation and had a beautiful baby girl the following October 27th. God's faithfulness and mercy toward us is still overwhelming and we are ever thankful for the family He has given to us (4 children; 14 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild) for the purpose of marriage He has blessed us with.....51 this past June 14th!

The ministry and work that the pregnancy center does is so inspiring. It is truly a place of hope which everyone needs when an unexpected pregnancy occurs. Mercy and hope.....this is what Immokalee Pregnancy Center gives and lives! This is why I choose to honor God by giving my time and gifts to this awesome beacon of hope in our community.

"Love looks like something".....and it looks like the Immokalee Pregnancy Center! Always remember you are loved and every life touches another.

RALPH BRESSLER, MINISTRY PARTNER

My first experience with Immokalee Pregnancy Center (IPC) occurred many years ago when Dave and Diane Hanson came to our church and shared the vision that God had given them about IPC. My wife Chris and I immediately fell in love with this ministry and wanted to support it as much as we could. Although we were constantly being asked to support organizations, this one clicked with us.

Through the years, we have been blessed to be table hosts at their Annual Fundraising Banquet, been involved in their "Prayer Warrior" texting program, given financially to their causes, as well as serving as their outside accounting source for quite a while.

As a CPA, it has been my pleasure (and real joy) to provide professional accounting advice to the organization, its Executive Director and its Board of Directors, yearly. Through these years, it has also been exciting to see the growth of the organization, with increases in new programs that are assisting expectant mothers and their families; the increase in the number of donors and fundraising annually; the wonderful transitions occurring with younger, energetic leadership and personnel continuing the heartbeat of the MISSION; and most importantly, the tremendous increase in number of expectant mothers who are choosing life for their unborn children.

Finally, God has truly blessed my wife and I by allowing us to be a small part of what He is doing in Southwest Florida with this chosen organization. Our prayer is that God will continue to "expand its territory" and keep His hand on the direction of this ministry and the lives of all those involved and touched by its love.

EMMI SEPULVEDA, ADMIN ASSISTANT ✨

I volunteered for several years at the Immokalee Pregnancy Center and helped during their annual fundraising banquet. Then in 2021, I was privileged to have the opportunity to become a part of the team as the Administrative Assistant.

Throughout the years, I've served in our Brightcourse Program and have seen how many times a client starts the program shy and closed off. But with time, we get to know each other better and slowly they begin to share their stories with me. As we grow closer, they begin to send me pictures from their gender reveals, baby showers, ultrasounds, and their newborn baby's photos.

I recently had a Brightcourse client who would frequently come to use her Brightcourse points and for the first few appointments, she would want to quickly shop and rush out. I would try to win her trust every appointment and ask her how she is doing. Each time she came in, she was more open with me. After getting to know each other better, she shared that she desired to return to her faith and start going to church again. She's now taking a bible study course in our Brightcourse program. Please pray for our client as she continues to grow in her relationship with God and wants to raise her child in the Lord's path.

I'm grateful to be a part of her story and of many other Brightcourse clients. I don't take lightly what I get to be a part of everyday. I'm looking forward to the many lives that God is going to continue to impact through Immokalee Pregnancy Center.

When *Naomi first came in for a pregnancy test, she expressed to me that abortion felt like the right decision for her. Due to her financial situation, she felt that continuing with the pregnancy would be difficult and that abortion seemed like the more plausible solution. As she shared her concerns with me, I took the time to listen and understand what was making her feel that this was her best option. It became clear that she was facing several different concerns and needed support in more than one area. I reassured *Naomi that she did not have to face these challenges alone and shared the different resources and programs available through our center. I also informed her about the abortion procedures and conducted some options counseling to help her make an informed decision. In the end, *Naomi left her first appointment undecided about what to do.

After returning for her ultrasound appointment, *Naomi had then decided to carry out her pregnancy. However, she still expressed her concerns about her financial situation.

I reassured her that she would not have to navigate her pregnancy alone and that we would connect her with the necessary resources tailored to her needs. *Naomi is now enrolled in our Brightcourse program and has been doing well. She mentioned to me that she enjoys the classes and feels like she's learned a lot. I recently had her come in for a gender reveal gift set and when I asked how her pregnancy was going, at that moment her face lit up. With the biggest smile on her face, she told me that she recently got to see her baby's face and was happy to find out she is having a boy! I couldn't believe that this very woman a few months ago was very adamant to get an abortion and is now standing before me with a bigger belly, excited for the birth of her son. Although her journey is far from over, I'm honored that I get to witness such a precious moment as this. *Naomi will soon be enrolled in our Second-Mile program closer to her due date, where as promised, we'll be providing diapers and wipes for her for an entire year."
